

Washington DC News

We get to go to DC this year!!!! How exciting is that? We will be communicating throughout the year a lot. The purpose of tonight is to get that conversation started. Since we do not go through a travel company we are able to keep our cost down, however with inflation as it is it may have to increase as we make reservations and determine final numbers, we will have a final trip price to you by the beginning of November at the latest. We appreciate your flexibility and understanding. The amounts we are working with are our best estimations.

Trip Fees...

- A $50 non-refundable deposit will be due 9/29/22. This holds your seat
- The remaining $400 balance can be paid off in monthly installments. There is a payment plan at the bottom of this paper.
- Interested parents should also send in $50 deposit by the same date. The remaining $500 can be paid in monthly installments too.
- Parents are first come/ first serve reservations
- ALL BALANCES MUST BE PAID BY 3/3/23

Once a student is signed up they are locked in and all planning is dependent on the number of people reserving places. So if they decided not to go later you must understand that:

- All fees and reservations paid to that point are your financial responsibility.
- Parents will not be refunded any fundraised money.
- A student who loses their DC privilege is still responsible for all money already paid for reservations, including the bus seat.

- By Ohio law all fundraising money earned is to be used for the activity it is raised for and by that group only.
- If you decide to forfeit the trip, any money you have raised for our DC trip will remain in the DC account and go toward the overall cost of the trip.
- I try to offer between 1-4 fundraisers through the course of the year.
